Re: Process of Commissioning in the Pacific Southwest District
Date:

Dear Commissioning Candidate,

Greetings! The Pacific Southwest District rejoices in the progress you've made during your exploration of a call to the set-apart ministry. We want this process to be as friendly and transparent as possible. See the attached candidate's check list for more information.

You are always welcome to call or email with any questions.

Outline of the Process:

Where to Start:

1. Continue your study of these four documents
 - (1) 2014 Ministerial Leadership Polity, www.brethren.org/ministryoffice/forms.html
 - (2) PSWD Addendum to Ministerial Leadership Polity *,
 - (3) Ethics in Ministry Relations 2008, www.brethren.org/ministryoffice/forms.html
 - (4) 2014 Congregational Ethics Polity. www.brethren.org/discipleship/ethics.html

* They are all available at: www.pswdcob.org/publications/ministerial-leadership-manual
2. Begin the paperwork on the attached candidate's check list.

What's Next:

1. Materials are due 3 weeks before the next Nurturing & Credentialing Committee (NACC) meeting, which is posted at: www.pswdcob.org/nacc
2. NACC will contact you to arrange an interview after all your paperwork has been received.
3. The NACC will present their recommendation to the Ministry Commission for a vote.
4. The Ministry Commission will present their recommendation to the district's Executive Board for a final vote on Commissioning.
5. If approved, the Ministry Commission will work with your congregation to arrange for a Congregational vote of affirmation (observed by a district representative).
6. If approved for Commissioning, the District Executive Minister will work with you and your congregation to arrange for the Commissioning Service, which is usually held as part of a Sunday morning worship.

If you have any questions about the Commissioning process, please feel free to contact the District Executive Minister.

In Christ, The Ministry Commission
