   A. Don Fancher and Mike Martin presented the Ministry Investment Plan and recommended its adoption. This comes as a recommendation from the Policy Board. Discussion was held.
   B. Susan Boyer (La Verne) moved and Jerry Davis (Pomona Fellowship) seconded to increase the 2011 Ministry Investment Plan expenses by $5000 for University of La Verne Campus Ministry. Approved.
   C. A time was given for discussion of the amended Ministry Investment Plan. This comes as a recommendation from the Policy Board.
   D. The Ministry Investment Plan was approved as amended.

XVII. Process for Dealing with Congregational Disagreements with Annual Conference and / or District Conference Decisions
   A. Don Fancher directed the delegates to page 64 of the Business Book, Exhibit E. This comes as a recommendation from the Policy Board.
   B. Sara Haldeman-Scarr (San Diego) moved and Mary Kay Ogden (La Verne) seconded that the statement be amended by striking out line 18 and all that follows and inserting: “grounded in the Unity Statement and conscious of our theological and cultural diversity, the Pacific Southwest District Conference appoints a five-person study committee to develop a framework for conversation around the areas of tension in a spirit of love and acceptance as we focus on Christ and report to the District Conference 2011.”
   C. After much discussion, it was determined that this should be a separate substitute motion. Sara H-S withdrew the amendment.
   D. Sara Haldeman-Scarr (San Diego) moved and Karen Cosner (Modesto) seconded to present a substitute motion that would use the beginning of the original paper, but strike line 18 and everything following and substitute the following: “grounded in the Unity Statement and conscious of our theological and cultural diversity, the Pacific Southwest District Conference appoints a five-person study committee to develop a framework for conversation around the areas of tension in a spirit of love and acceptance as we focus on Christ and report to the District Conference 2011.”
E. A verbal vote was too close to call. A raised-hand vote was held on the substitute motion. The substitute motion passed, replacing the original paper by a vote of 38-28.

F. The substitute motion which was just passed was then discussed. A question was asked as to who should appoint the committee. Cady Laycook (South Bay) moved and Doris Dunham (Bakersfield) seconded to amend the motion to read “…the Pacific Southwest District Conference directs the Policy Board to appoint a five-person committee…” The amendment was approved.

G. The amended substitute motion was approved.

XVIII. Reports

A. National Youth Conference
Becky Zapata gave a report on National Youth Conference. She thanked the District for the opportunity to be a co-director of the Pacific Southwest District’s efforts to facilitate participation in National Youth Conference. One hundred attendees represented our District. Becky challenged everyone to begin planning for the 2014 NYC now and to support youth from other congregations if there are no youth from one’s own congregation.

B. Reports From Denominational Agencies
Lowell Flory (Bethany Seminary) and Jay Wittmeyer (Mission & Ministry Board) reported from the Denominational Agencies. A video was shown highlighting the CoB Denominational Agencies.

XIX. Moderator’s Closing Remarks
Felton Daniels thanked the conference attendees for the opportunity to serve as the Moderator. Felton also thanked Hillcrest Homes for hosting the conference.

XX. Passing of the Gavel
Felton Daniels passed the gavel to Karen Walters.
